The foregoing clause (iii) shall be the exclusive means for a stockholder to propose business to be brought before an Annual Meeting. The only matters that may be brought before a Special Meeting are the matters specified in the Meeting Notice given by or at the direction of the person calling the meeting pursuant to Section 2, and stockholders shall not be permitted to propose business to be brought before a Special Meeting. For purposes of this Section 8 and Section 9, “present in person” shall mean that the stockholder proposing that the business be brought before the meeting of the Corporation, or a qualified representative of such proposing stockholder, appear at such meeting. A “qualified representative” of such proposing stockholder shall be a duly authorized officer, manager or partner of such stockholder or any other person authorized by a writing executed by such stockholder or an electronic transmission delivered by such stockholder to act for such stockholder as proxy at the meeting and such person must produce such writing or electronic transmission, or a reliable reproduction of the writing or electronic transmission, at the meeting. In no event shall any adjournment or postponement of an Annual Meeting or the announcement thereof commence a new time period for the giving of Timely Notice as described above.

- (c) To be in proper form for purposes of this Section 8, a stockholder's notice to the secretary shall set forth:
- (i) As to each Proposing Person (as defined below), (A) the name and address of such Proposing Person (including, if applicable, the name and address that appear on the Corporation's books and records); and (B) the class or series and number of shares of the corporation that are, directly or indirectly, owned of record or beneficially owned (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) by such Proposing Person, except that such Proposing Person shall in all events be deemed to beneficially own any shares of any class or series of the corporation as to which such Proposing Person has a right to acquire beneficial ownership at any time in the future (the disclosures to be made pursuant to the foregoing clauses (A) and (B) are referred to as "Stockholder Information");

(iii) As to each item of business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the Annual Meeting, (A) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the Annual Meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the Annual Meeting and any material interest in such business of each Proposing Person, (B) the text of the proposal or business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration), (C) a reasonably detailed description of all agreements, arrangements and understandings (x) between or among any of the Proposing Persons or (y) between or among any Proposing Person and any other person or entity (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such business by such stockholder, and (D) any other information relating to such item of business that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filing required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies in support of the business proposed to be brought before the meeting pursuant to Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act; provided, however, that the disclosures required by this paragraph (iii) shall not include any Exempt Disclosures.

For purposes of this Section 8, the term “Proposing Person” shall mean (i) the stockholder providing the notice of business proposed to be brought before an Annual Meeting, (ii) the beneficial owner or beneficial owners, if different, on whose behalf the notice of the business proposed to be brought before the Annual Meeting is made, and (iii) any participant (as defined in paragraphs (a)(ii)-(vi) of Instruction 3 to Item 4 of Schedule 14A) with such stockholder in such solicitation (a “Participant”).

- (d) A Proposing Person shall update and supplement its notice (an “Update”) to the Corporation of its intent to propose business at an Annual Meeting, if necessary, so that the information provided or required to be provided in such notice pursuant to this Section 8 shall be true and correct as of the record date for stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting and as of the date that is ten (10) business days prior to the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, and such Update shall be delivered to, or mailed and received by, the secretary at the Executive Offices not later than five (5) business days after the record date for stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting (in the case of an Update required to be made as of such record date), and not later than eight (8) business days prior to the date for the meeting or, if practicable, any adjournment or postponement thereof (and, if not practicable, on the first practicable date prior to the date to which the meeting has been adjourned or postponed) (in the case of an Update required to be made as of ten (10) business days prior to the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof) (such Updates within such time periods, “Timely Updates”). For the avoidance of doubt, the obligation to update and supplement as set forth in this paragraph or any other Section of these By-Laws shall not limit the corporation’s rights with respect to any deficiencies in any notice provided by a stockholder, extend any applicable deadlines hereunder or enable or be deemed to permit a stockholder who has previously submitted notice hereunder to amend or update any proposal or to submit any new proposal, including by changing or adding matters, business or resolutions proposed to be brought before a meeting of the stockholders.
- (e) Notwithstanding anything in these By-Laws to the contrary, no business shall be conducted at an Annual Meeting that is not properly brought before the meeting in accordance with this Section 8. The presiding officer of the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine that any business was not properly brought before the meeting in accordance with this Section 8, and if he or she should so determine, he or she shall so declare at the meeting and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted.
- (f) This Section 8 is expressly intended to apply to any business proposed to be brought before an Annual Meeting other than any proposal made in accordance with Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act and included in the corporation’s proxy statement. In addition to the requirements of this Section 8 with respect to any business proposed to be brought before an Annual Meeting, each Proposing Person shall comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act with respect to any such business. Nothing in this Section 8 shall be deemed to affect the rights of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the corporation’s proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act.

- (g) For purposes of these By-Laws, “public disclosure” shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by a national news service or in a document publicly filed by the corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Sections 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

The foregoing clause (ii) shall be the exclusive means for a stockholder to make any nomination of a person or persons for election to the Board of Directors at an annual meeting or special meeting.
- (b) (i) Without qualification, for a stockholder to make any nomination of a person or persons for election to the Board of Directors (a “Nominee”) at an Annual Meeting or, if the election of directors is a matter specified in the notice of meeting given by or at the direction of the person calling a special meeting, a Special Meeting, the stockholder must (1) provide Timely Notice (as defined in Section 8 or below, as applicable) thereof in writing and in proper form to the secretary of the corporation, (2) provide the information, agreements and questionnaires with respect to such stockholder and its Nominee as required by this Section 9 and Section 10 and (3) provide an Update at the times and in the forms required by this Section 9 and Section 10. To be timely, a stockholder’s notice for nominations to be made at a Special Meeting must be delivered to, or mailed and received at, the Executive Offices not earlier than the one hundred twentieth (120th) day prior to such Special Meeting and not later than the ninetieth (90th) day prior to such Special Meeting or, if later, the tenth (10th) day following the day on which public disclosure (as defined in Section 8) of the date of such Special Meeting was first made.
- (ii) In no event shall any adjournment or postponement of an Annual Meeting or Special Meeting or the announcement thereof commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder’s notice as described above.
- (iii) In no event may a Nominating Person (as defined below) provide Timely Notice in respect of a greater number of Nominees than are, based on these By-Laws and the Certificate of Incorporation, subject to election at the applicable meeting by the holders of the class of shares that the Nominating Person beneficially owns. If the corporation shall, subsequent to such notice, increase the number of directors subject to election at the meeting, such notice as to any additional nominees shall be due on the later of (i) the conclusion of the time period for Timely Notice set forth in Section 8(b), (ii) the date set forth in the last sentence of clause (b)(i) of this Section 9 or (iii) the tenth day following the date of public disclosure (as defined in Section 8) of such increase.
- (c) To be in proper form for purposes of this Section 9, a stockholder’s notice to the secretary shall set forth:
- (i) As to each Nominating Person, the Stockholder Information (as defined in Section 8(c)(i)), except that for purposes of this Section 9 the term “Nominating Person” shall be substituted for the term “Proposing Person” in all places it appears in Section 8(c)(i));

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Mandatory Indemnification.

- (a) ~~(A)~~ Subject to the conditions and limitations of this Article VII and the corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, the corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law as it may then be in effect, indemnify and hold harmless any person who is or was a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, claim, litigation, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, whether predicated on foreign, federal, state or local law, and whether formal or informal (collectively, "action(s)") by reason of his status as, or the fact that he is or was or has agreed to become, a director or officer (collectively, "executive(s)") of the corporation or of an affiliate, and as to acts performed in the course of the executive's duty to the corporation or to an affiliate, against:
- (i) expenses, fees, costs and charges, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and disbursements (collectively, "expenses") reasonably incurred by or on behalf of the executive in connection with any action (including, without limitation, in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of such action), no matter by whom brought, including, without limitation, actions brought under and/or predicated upon the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and/or the ~~Securities~~ Exchange Act ~~of 1934~~, as amended, and/or their respective state counterparts and/or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder (collectively, "securities law action(s)"); provided, that it is not determined pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII, or by the court before which such action was brought, that:
- (~~a~~A) the executive engaged in criminal, fraudulent or intentional misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation,
 - (~~b~~B) with respect to criminal actions, the executive had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and
 - (~~e~~C) with respect to securities law actions, the executive did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and ~~its~~ stockholders;
- (ii) subject to the restrictions of Section 1(~~C~~) of this Article VII, amounts incurred by the executive in settlement of any action, no matter by whom brought, including, without limitation, securities law actions; provided that it is not determined pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII, or by the court before which such action was brought, that:
- (~~a~~A) such settlement was not in the best interests of the corporation and its stockholders,
 - (~~b~~B) the amount incurred by the executive in such settlement was unreasonable (to a material extent) in light of all of the circumstances of such action,
 - (~~e~~C) the executive engaged in criminal, fraudulent or intentional misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation, and
 - (~~d~~D) with respect to securities law actions, the executive did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and its stockholders; and

- (iii) subject to the restrictions of Section 1(~~C~~) of this Article VII, judgments, fines, penalties or other amounts incurred by the executive pursuant to an adjudication of liability in connection with any action, including, without limitation, securities law actions; provided that it is not determined pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII, or by the court before which such action was brought, that:
- (~~A~~) the executive engaged in criminal, fraudulent or intentional misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation,
 - (~~B~~) with respect to securities law actions, the executive did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and its stockholders, and
 - (~~C~~) with respect to criminal actions, the executive had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful and that he otherwise did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and its stockholders.
- (b) ~~(B)~~ To the extent the executive has been successful on the merits or otherwise in connection with any action referred to in Section 1(A) of this Article VII, no matter by whom brought (including, without limitation, the settlement, dismissal, abandonment or withdrawal of any such action where the executive does not pay, incur or assume any material liability), or in connection with any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified by the corporation against expenses reasonably incurred by or on behalf of him in connection therewith. The corporation shall pay such amounts (net of all amounts, if any, previously advanced to the executive pursuant to Section 4 of this Article VII) to the executive (or to such other person or entity as the executive may designate in writing to the corporation) upon the executive's written request therefor without regard to the provisions of Section 2 of this Article VII.
- (c) ~~(C)~~ Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1(~~A~~)(ii) and 1(~~A~~)(iii), no indemnification shall be made to the executive by the corporation for monetary damages incurred by the executive pursuant to an action brought by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor (sometimes hereinafter referred to as "derivative action(s)") or an action brought by a stockholder of the corporation if it is determined pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII, or by the court before which such action was brought, that:
- (i) the executive breached his duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders;
 - (ii) the executive committed acts or omissions in bad faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;
 - (iii) the executive engaged in any willful or negligent conduct in paying dividends or repurchasing stock of the corporation out of other than lawfully available funds; or
 - (iv) the executive derived an improper personal benefit from any transaction, unless such improper personal benefit is determined to be immaterial in light of all of the circumstances of such action.
- (d) ~~(D)~~ If the executive is or was serving as an executive, trustee, fiduciary, employee or agent of an employee benefit plan sponsored by or otherwise associated with the corporation and incurs expenses or amounts in settlement, judgments, fines, penalties or other amounts, including, without limitation, any excise tax or penalty assessed with respect to the employee benefit plan by reason of an action having been brought, or having been threatened, against such executive because of his status as such an executive, trustee, fiduciary, employee or agent of such plan, the corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless the executive against any and all of such reasonable amounts; provided it is not determined pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII that the executive's conduct with respect to such employee benefit plan was for a purpose he did not reasonably believe to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of such plan.

SECTION 2. Right to Indemnification; How Determined.

- (a) ~~(A)~~ Except as otherwise set forth in this Section 2, any indemnification to be provided to ~~the~~an executive by the corporation under Section 1 of this Article VII upon the final disposition or conclusion of an action

(or a claim, issue or matter associated with such an action), unless otherwise ordered by the court before which such action was brought, shall be paid by the corporation (net of all amounts, if any, previously advanced to the executive pursuant to Section 4 of this Article VII) to the executive (or to such other person or entity as the executive may designate in writing to the corporation) within sixty (60) days after the receipt of executive's written request therefor, which request shall include a comprehensive accounting of amounts for which indemnification is being sought and shall reference the provision(s) of this Article VII pursuant to which such claim is being made.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment of the requested amounts may be denied by the corporation if (i) the Board of Directors ~~of the corporation~~ by a majority vote thereof determines that such payment, in whole or in part, would not be in the best interests of the corporation and its stockholders and would contravene the terms and conditions of this Article VII; or (ii) a majority of the directors ~~of the corporation~~ are a party in interest to such action. In either of such events, the Board shall immediately authorize and direct, by resolution, that an independent determination be made as to whether the executive has met the applicable standard(s) of conduct set forth in Section 1 of this Article VII and, therefore, whether indemnification is proper pursuant to this Article VII.

Such independent determination shall be made by a panel of three (3) arbitrators in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, or, at the option of the executive, in Wilmington, Delaware, in accordance with the rules then prevailing of the American Arbitration Association, or, at the option of the executive, by an independent legal counsel mutually selected by the Board and the executive (such panel of arbitrators and/or independent legal counsel being hereinafter referred to as the "authority").

In any such determination there shall exist a rebuttable presumption that the executive has met such standard(s) of conduct and is therefore entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Article VII. The burden of rebutting such presumption by clear and convincing evidence shall be on the corporation.

If a panel of arbitrators is to be employed, one of such arbitrators shall be selected by the Board by a majority vote of a quorum thereof consisting of directors who were not parties in interest to such action (or, if such quorum is not obtainable, by an independent legal counsel chosen by the Board), the second by the executive and the third by the previous two arbitrators.

The authority shall make a determination within sixty (60) days of being selected and shall simultaneously submit a written opinion of its conclusions to both the corporation and the executive and, if the authority determines that the executive is entitled to be indemnified for any amounts pursuant to this Article VII, the corporation shall pay such amounts (net of all amounts, if any, previously advanced to the executive pursuant to Section 4 of this Article VII), including interest thereon as provided in Section 5(~~C~~) of this Article VII, to the executive (or to such other person or entity as the executive may designate in writing to the corporation) within ten (10) days of receipt of such opinion.

(b) ~~(B)~~ The executive may, either before or within two (2) years after a determination, if any, has been made by the authority, petition any court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether the executive is entitled to indemnification under this Article VII. Such court shall thereupon have the exclusive power to make such determination unless and until such court dismisses or otherwise terminates such proceeding without having made such determination.

The court shall make an independent determination of whether the executive is entitled to indemnification as provided under this Article VII, irrespective of any prior determination made by the authority; provided, however, that there shall exist a rebuttable presumption that the executive has met the applicable standard(s) of conduct and is therefore entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Article VII. The burden of rebutting such presumption by clear and convincing evidence shall be on the corporation.

If the court determines that the executive is entitled to be indemnified for any amounts pursuant to this Article VII, unless otherwise ordered by such court, the corporation shall pay such amounts (net of all amounts, if any, previously advanced to the executive pursuant to Section 4 of this Article VII), including interest thereon as provided in Section 5(~~C~~) of this Article VII, to the executive (or to such other person or entity as the executive may designate in writing to the corporation) within ten days of the rendering of such determination.

The executive shall pay all expenses incurred by the executive in connection with the judicial determination provided in this Section 2(~~Bb~~), unless it shall ultimately be determined by the court that he is entitled to be indemnified, in whole or in part, by the corporation as authorized in this agreement. All expenses incurred by the executive in connection with any subsequent appeal of the judicial determination provided for in this Section 2(~~Bb~~) shall be paid by the executive regardless of the disposition of such appeal.

- (c) ~~(C)~~ Except as otherwise set forth in this Section 2, the expenses associated with the indemnification process set forth in this Section 2, including, without limitation, the expenses of the authority selected hereunder, shall be paid by the corporation.

SECTION 3. Termination of an Action is Nonconclusive. The termination of any action, no matter by whom brought, including, without limitation, securities law actions, by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of no contest or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the executive has not met the applicable standard(s) of conduct set forth in Section 1 of this Article VII.

SECTION 4. Advance Payment.

- (a) ~~(A)~~ Expenses reasonably incurred by or on behalf of the executive in connection with any action (or claim, issue or matter associated with such action), no matter by whom brought, including, without limitation, securities law actions shall be paid by the corporation to the executive (or to such other person or entity as the executive may designate in writing to the corporation) in advance of the final disposition or conclusion of such action (or claim, issue or matter associated with such action) upon the receipt of executive's written request therefor; provided the following conditions are satisfied:
- (i) the executive has first requested an advance of such expenses in writing (and delivered a copy of such request to the corporation) from the insurance carrier(s), to whom a claim has been reported under an insurance policy purchased by the corporation, if any, as provided under Section 8 of this Article VII and each such insurance carrier has declined to make such an advance;
 - (ii) the executive furnishes to the corporation an executed written certificate affirming his good faith belief that he has met the applicable standard(s) of conduct set forth in Section 1 of this Article VII; and
 - (iii) the executive furnishes to the corporation an executed written agreement to repay any advances made under this Section 4 if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation for such amounts pursuant to this Article VII.
- (b) ~~(B)~~ If the corporation makes an advance of expenses to the executive pursuant to this Section 4, the corporation shall be subrogated to every right of recovery the executive may have against any insurance carrier from whom the corporation has purchased insurance for such purpose.

SECTION 5. Partial Indemnification; Interest.

- (a) ~~(A)~~ If it is determined by the authority pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII, or by the court before which such action was brought, that the executive is entitled to indemnification as to some claims, issues or matters, but not as to other claims, issues or matters, involved in any action, no matter by whom brought, including, without limitation, securities law actions, the authority (or the court) shall authorize the reasonable proration of such expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and/or amounts incurred in settlement with respect to which indemnification is sought by the executive, among such claims, issues or matters as the authority (or the court) shall deem appropriate in light of all of the circumstances of such action.
- (b) ~~(B)~~ If it is determined by the authority pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII, or by the court before which such action was brought, that certain amounts incurred by the executive, are for whatever reason unreasonable in amount, the authority (or the court) shall authorize indemnification to be paid by the corporation to the executive for only such amounts as the authority (or the court) shall deem reasonable in light of all of the circumstances of such action.

- (c) ~~(C)~~ To the extent deemed appropriate by the authority, or by the court before which such action was brought, interest shall be paid by the corporation to the executive, at a reasonable interest rate, for amounts for which the corporation indemnifies the executive.

SECTION 6. Limitation of Derivative Actions and Release of Derivative Claims. No derivative action shall be brought and no cause of derivative action shall be asserted against the executive, his spouse, heirs, executors or administrators after the expiration of two (2) years from the date the executive ceases, for any reason whatsoever, to serve as an executive of the corporation and/or of an affiliate and any claim or cause of derivative action of the corporation shall be extinguished and deemed released unless asserted by the filing of an appropriate derivative action within such two-year period.

The provisions of any federal, state or local law or statute providing in substance that releases shall not extend to claims, demands, injuries or damages which are unknown or unsuspected to exist at the time to the person or entity executing such release are hereby expressly waived by the corporation and its stockholders.

SECTION 7. Nonexclusivity of Agreement. The right to indemnification and advancement of expenses provided to the executive by this Article VII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the executive may be entitled under any charter provision, by-law, agreement, resolution, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors of the corporation or otherwise, including, without limitation, under Delaware General Corporation Law Section 145 as it may then be in effect, both as to acts in his official capacity as such executive or other employee or agent of the corporation or of an affiliate, or as to acts in any other capacity while holding such office or position, and the terms and provisions of this Article VII shall continue as to the executive if he ceases to be an executive or other employee or agent of the corporation or of an affiliate, and such terms and provisions shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of the executive.

SECTION 8. Insurance.

- (a) ~~(A)~~ The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of the executive against any liability asserted against him or incurred by or on behalf of him in such capacity as an executive or other employee or agent of the corporation or of an affiliate, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VII or under Delaware General Corporation Law Section 145 as it may then be in effect.

The purchase and maintenance of such insurance shall not in any way limit or affect the rights and obligations of the corporation or the executive under this Article VII and the adoption of this Article VII by the corporation shall not in any way limit or affect the rights and obligations of the corporation or of the other party or parties thereto under any such policy or agreement of insurance.

- (b) ~~(B)~~ If the executive shall receive payment from any insurance carrier or from the plaintiff in any action against the executive in respect of indemnified amounts after payments on account of all or part of such indemnified amounts have been made by the corporation pursuant to this Article VII, the executive shall promptly reimburse the corporation for the amount, if any, by which the sum of such payment by such insurance carrier or such plaintiff and payments by the corporation to the executive exceeds such indemnified amounts; provided, however, that such portions, if any, of such insurance proceeds that are required to be reimbursed to the insurance carrier under the terms of its insurance policy, such as deductible or co-insurance payments, shall not be deemed to be payments to the executive hereunder.

In addition, upon payment of indemnified amounts under this Article VII, the corporation shall be subrogated to the executive's rights against any insurance carrier in respect of such indemnified amounts and the Executive shall execute and deliver any and all instruments and/or documents and perform any and all other acts or deeds which the corporation deems necessary or advisable to secure such rights. The executive shall do nothing to prejudice such rights of recovery or subrogation.

SECTION 9. Witness Expenses. Upon the executive's written request, the corporation shall pay (in advance or otherwise) or reimburse any and all expenses reasonably incurred by the executive in connection with his appearance as a witness in any action at a time when he has not been formally named a defendant or respondent to such an action.

SECTION 10. Contribution.

- (a) ~~(A)~~ If the indemnity provided for in Section 1 of this Article VII is unavailable to the executive for any reason whatsoever, the corporation, in lieu of indemnifying the executive, shall contribute to the amount reasonably incurred by or on behalf of the executive, whether for judgments, fines, penalties, amounts incurred in settlement and/or for expenses in connection with any action, no matter by whom brought, including, without limitation, securities law actions, in such proportion as deemed fair and reasonable by the authority pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII, or by the court before which such action was brought, taking into account all of the circumstances of such action, in order to reflect (i) the relative benefits received by the corporation and the executive as a result of the event(s) and/or transaction(s) giving cause to such action; and/or (ii) the relative fault of the corporation (and its other executives, employees and/or agents) and the executive in connection with such event(s) and/or transaction(s).
- (b) ~~(B)~~ The executive shall not be entitled to contribution from the corporation under this Section 10 if it is determined pursuant to Section 2 of this Article VII, or by the court before which such action was brought, that the executive engaged in criminal, fraudulent or intentional misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation or otherwise violated the provisions of Section 1(~~C~~) of this Article VII.
- (c) ~~(C)~~ The corporation's payment of, and the executive's right to, contribution under this Section 10 shall be made and determined in accordance with Section 2 of this Article VII relating to the corporation's payment of, and the executive's right to, indemnification.

SECTION 11. Severability. If any provision of this Article VII shall be deemed invalid or inoperative, or if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any of the provisions of this Article VII contravene public policy, this Article VII shall be construed so that the remaining provisions shall not be affected, but shall remain in full force and effect, and any such provisions which are invalid or inoperative or which contravene public policy shall be deemed, without further action or deed on the part of any person, to be modified, amended and/or limited, but only to the extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and the corporation shall indemnify the executive as to expenses, judgments, fines and amounts incurred in settlement with respect to any action, no matter by whom brought, including securities law actions, to the full extent permitted by any applicable provision of this Article VII that shall not have been invalidated and to the full extent otherwise permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law as it may then be in effect.

SECTION 12. Amendment and Modification.

- (a) ~~SECTION 12. Amendment and Modification.~~ This Article VII has been adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than two thirds of the stockholders of the corporation entitled to vote therefor and may only be altered, amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of not less than two thirds of the stockholders of the corporation so entitled to vote; provided, however, that such stockholder authorization shall not be required in the event such alteration or amendment: (i) is made in order to conform to any amendment or revision of the Delaware General Corporation Law which expands an executive's rights to indemnification thereunder or is otherwise beneficial to the executive, or (ii) in the sole judgment and discretion of the Board of Directors of the corporation, does not materially adversely affect the rights and protections of the stockholders of the corporation.
- (b) Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this Article VII shall not adversely affect any right or protection hereunder of any executive in respect of any proceeding (regardless of when such proceeding is first threatened, commenced or completed) arising out of, or related to, any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.
- (a) ~~is made in order to conform to any amendment or revision of the Delaware General Corporation Law which expands an executive's rights to indemnification thereunder or is otherwise beneficial to the executive, or~~

~~(b) in the sole judgment and discretion of the Board of Directors of the corporation, does not materially adversely affect the rights and protections of the stockholders of the corporation.~~
